MAKE IT YOUR GOAL TO CONNECT WITH KEY DECISION MAKERS IN THE A&D INDUSTRY

SpeedNews Conferences deliver an array of information to the aviation industry that is unmatched in its quality and depth to stakeholders in commercial, defense, business and general aviation, aerospace manufacturing, raw materials, and M&A.

SpeedNews Conferences is the world’s most prominent developer of aerospace and aviation information sharing events, providing global aerospace and aviation leaders, executives, and decision makers with targeted industry information, data, updates, forecasts, and professional networking opportunities.

Opportunities

Our mission is to strengthen the A&D Industry through quality events, provide top level speakers, and connect industry professionals with each other. We are dedicated to making our events successful for our delegates, sponsors and advertisers.

We are known as the premiere events in the A&D industry for information gathering, and knowledge sharing for those involved in these areas worldwide. If you want to be recognized as a leader, if you want brand recognition or if you want to develop relationships, and connect with leaders, our portfolio is the place to be involved!

Our promotional and collaboration opportunities position your organization as an industry leader and enable you to reach qualified buyers with purchasing power. Solution providers are able to develop strategic partnerships and customer relationships with global industry professionals, leading to sales being closed at an accelerated rate and increased exposure within the core communities at all times during the event lifecycle. We connect your organization to the right business opportunity channels around the globe.

We are dedicated to making our events successful for our customers and audience. We would like to help your organization become part of our A&D community, so let us help build your connections. Please contact Joanna Speed at jspeed@speednews.com today to get you started.
